

Year 1 – Geography

The Wild World - Weather

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Weather Symbols		Interesting Images
equator	An imaginary line around the middle of Earth splitting it into two parts – the Northern and Southern Hemispheres.
North Pole	This is the northern most point on Earth. The North Pole lies in the Arctic Ocean.	1. Sunshine	2. Partly cloudy
South Pole	This is the southern most point on Earth. The South Pole is located in Antarctica.	3. Showers	4. Heavy rain globe	A globe is a sphere shaped model of Earth. We can use a globe to locate places on Earth.	5. Hail	6. Cloudy atlas	An atlas is a book of maps.	7. Overcast	8. Sunshine and showers weather symbols	These are pictures which represent different types of weather.	9. Snow	10. Thunderstorms temperature	Temperature is how hot or cold something is. It can be measured using a thermometer.	Key Knowledge By the end of this unit, I will know...
		<input type="checkbox"/> There are four countries in the UK – England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. The weather can be different in these countries due to their distance from the equator.
		<input type="checkbox"/> In the UK, we have four seasons: spring, summer, autumn and winter. Summer is the hottest season and winter the coldest.
		<input type="checkbox"/> The weather changes with each season. We wear different clothes at different times of the year to suit the different weather patterns.

